RIFLE CLUB TO PROVIDE MEN WITH PRACTICE

BILL SIMMONS ELECTED AS PRESIDENT OF GROUP.

Rifle Enthusiasts Hope to Join the National Rifle Association in Near Future.

With Bill Simmons as president, a group of Canyon sportsmen formed a civilian rifle club last week end. Starting with eleven men as charter members, the club has complied with all requirements of the National Rifle Association, with a view of gaining membership in that body. The organization provides an opportunity for shooting enthusiasts to gather as a group to coach one another for qualifying as finished marksmen and to compete with each other in formal matches.

Aside from the main purpose of the organization, the Canyon Club was organized to give hunting enthusiasts an opportunity to form groups for hunting trips.

Through the courtesy and cooperation of Captain W. E. Lockhart, the newly organized club met with the Canyon branch of the National Guard Sunday afternoon and participated in rifle practice at the range. The club will use the short range of George Cox close to the Country Club and the National Guard long range above the T-Anchor ranch.

TEXAS EXHIBITS TO BE SHOWN BY ORGANIZATION

PANHANDLE OF TEXAS, INC. WILL VISIT FAIRS.

Literature Will Present Interesting Facts and Advantages About Country.

Officials of the Panhandle of Texas, Inc., have announced that the regular program of that organization will be carried out during the coming fall months when exhibits of the Panhandle farm and industrial products will be carried to all of the leading fairs in the midwest.

Last year some 16 fairs were visited with exhibits from this section of the country. Many people were shown for the first time in their lives what the Panhandle of Texas produces. Many interesting facts never before known to them in the past were told interested on-lookers. The people in other states were given first hand information on every phase of the Panhandle.

Officials of the Panhandle of Texas, Inc., believe that organization is doing more than any other regional organization anywhere. When it is learned that some person who views the exhibit is interested in any part of the 32 counties of the Panhandle, his name is secured, together with his address and what information he may desire. If he seeks to enter some special line of business or agricultural venture that fact is also learned. Then as soon as this information is forwarded to the

Tourists From All Over U. S. See Palo Duro

Cars from 11 states and 38 Texas cities drove through the gates of the Palo Duro Park 12 miles east of Canyon, last Sunday. Within a few days stickers will be ready for distribution by the chambers of commerce of Canyon and Amarillo and each car which leaves the park for the rest of the season will bear a bit of advertising, telling the world about the beauty spot of the Panhandle.

Out-of-state cars registered Sunday were from the following cities: Denver, Colo., Memphis, Tenn., Mound Ridge, Kans., Okmulgee, Okla., Wichita, Kan., St. Louis, Mo., Orlando, Fla., Washington, D. C., Springfield, Mo., El Canto, Cal., Newburg, Vt., State College, N. M., Fargo, Okla., Phoenix, Ariz., Clovis, N. M., Texola, Okla., Chickasha, Okla.

The Palo Duro Park was discussed in an article in last Sunday's issue of the Dallas News, which told of the entire proposed park system of the State of Texas. The article told of the opening of the 640 acres of land free to the public and of the construction of a rim drive around the canyon edge inside of the park site.

APPOINTMENT FOR NOTARY PUBLIC IN SPECIAL SESSION

Before leaving for Austin Sunday to attend the special session of the 42nd legislature, Clyde W. Warwick stated that if there are any in this county who wish to secure the appointment as notary public during the special session to please communicate with him, Capitol Station, Austin.

Whether Canyon will buy land north of town for a municipal park will be decided at the election Monday, July 20, which will be held in the City Hall. The ballot box will open at 8 o'clock and will remain open until 6 o'clock that evening.

The proposition as submitted, if it is accepted, will authorize the city of Canyon to issue $10,000 of bonds, payable serially, $500 one year from their date and $500 each year thereafter up to and including the year 1951, bearing interest at the rate of five per cent per annum, payable semi-annually, and to levy a tax sufficient to redeem them at maturity.

The city will buy the Herman Wragge place one half mile north of Canyon and make improvements on it for a city park.

A. M. Smith has been appointed presiding judge. C. H. Jarrett and J. D. Gamble will serve as judges. Hud Prichard and Oscar Gano will be clerks.

Only qualified voters who are property taxpayers of Canyon will be allowed to vote. Those who favor the proposition to issue bonds will write or print upon their ballots the words:

"For the Issuance of Bonds."

Those who oppose the proposition will write or print upon their ballots the words:

"Against the Issuance of Bonds."

Mayor R. A. Bellah has asked that the citizens of Canyon give their earnest attention to this election by examining the merits of the question. He would like for the citizens to show their loyalty to the city by coming to the ballot box and voting their honest sentiments.

T-Anchor Boys to Meet August 27th at Wragge Park

The annual reunion of the T-Anchor cowboys will be held at the Wragge Park north of Canyon on the highway on Thursday, August 27th. Arrangements are being made for the annual reunion by John Arnold, president, R. E. Baird, vice president, and Miss Laura Hamner, secretary. The T-Anchor reunion was first held in Hereford about ten years ago, and was moved to Canyon the second year in order to be near the old headquarters of the famous old ranch on which so many of the leading men of this territory once worked as cowboys.

Mr. Baird states that the directors have decided that the attendance must be restricted to members of the immediate families of the cowboys. In past years many others have been invited, and married children of the members together with their families have attended so that the crowd has become very large. Tickets will be issued this year and only those entitled to membership, their wives and their unmarried children.

VOTE MONDAY.

The city election for the purpose of determining whether or not the city will buy the Wragge Park will be held next Monday. Every property tax paying citizen of Canyon has a vote, if he has paid his poll tax. Every citizen should vote next Monday.

The News is not in position to make a prediction as to the outcome of the election Monday. It is never safe to make predictions on bond elections, but if the people will study the question carefully, vote their true sentiments rather than prejudices, then it matters not whether the election carries or fails—the people will have spoken, and the results will be final.

In carefully analyzing this election, we find that the majority of the facts regarding the issue are in favor of buying the park. The city needs a park; this land is being offered at far below its real value; there is enough sand and gravel on the place to make a profitable investment for the city in its future street improvement program; there is one of the best swimming pools in the Panhandle on the place; it will take very little expenditure to make this the real show place of the Panhandle for picnicking purposes; there is enough farm land to very largely pay for the upkeep of the person employed as caretaker; the city will never be offered such a bargain again; if the city should decide to cut down the size of the park, half or more could be sold at advantage, and still enough remain for a good sized park.

Some people always vote against bond issues; some people think the present depression will last forever; some people are prejudiced against the city going into the park business; some are afraid that it will be hard to police; perhaps other objections have been raised which we have not heard.

The News believes that right now while the bargain is offered, while Canyon is yet young and values are the lowest in many years, is the time to buy this property.

Weigh the facts carefully, and then go to the polls Monday and vote as these facts lead you to determine the best course.

The daily press is full of communications from people condemning the banks for taking so much precaution in making loans, and demanding that obligations be met. It is the unthoughtful person who makes such criticism. It is true that bank deposits show a healthy situation; but this money does not belong to the banks—it is the property of those customers who trust its safe-keeping to the banks. The state and federal government attempt in every way to see to it that banks are conducted in a safe and sane manner so that those who have money in the banks may get it at any time they need it. It is a compliment to bankers of Northwest Texas that there has been hardly a single bank failure during these trying times, when in other states and other sections of Texas there have been many failures. Officers of banks which fail are severely criticised, and rightfully so in many instances, for making excessive and unsafe loans. Banks which are safe and remain open to look after the people's business should be complimented rather than criticised for demanding that the money they loan be properly secured and will be repaid when due.

We rather suspect that the railroad officials are enjoying the fight which is being made upon other public utilities. A few years ago everyone was cussing the railroads; rates went down, the trucks and busses came; most railroads had to curtail their service, and their stocks and bonds depreciated in value. That the public utilities are successful is not denied; the biggest men of the country are directing them. Perhaps they are making too much money, according to their investments; at least they are giving very efficient service, and the prices have been reduced. At any rate, the utilities are under fire at the time, but the public should not be too harsh in their criticism without knowing all of the facts in connection with the case.

Cal Farley, a fine business man, as well as a clean sportsman, stated a great truth the other day when he called this a great educational year. When times are good, anyone can successfully run a business, farm, or be a good professional man. When times get tough, the old gray matter must go to work, as well as the muscles. The fact that 93 per cent of all who enter the retail field sooner or later go broke is evidence enough that this 1931 has not been the only hard year in the history of the country. People too quickly forget the lessons of hard years. If next year is good, all of us will have forgotten in a twelve month's period the hard lessons that we are learning this year.

The Santa Fe has handled the largest wheat crop in the history of this section without a car shortage. Last week when it looked like a car shortage was almost certain, the company managed to get hold of 2100 cars for this division. There will be plenty of cars for the remainder of the season. All records of shipments over the Santa Fe have been broken. Shipments of 1929 had established a record, which has been surpassed this year. If all of the wheat had been marketed as threshed, the story might have been different, but every farmer who can do so is storing a part of his wheat, hoping that the price will be better in a few weeks or months.

Albert B. Fall must go to jail for a year and pay a fine of $100,000 for accepting a bribe while holding a place of high trust and honor with the United States government. For ten years Fall has been in court. Ask him today, and Albert Fall will tell you that honesty is the best policy. As the Denver Post says at the head of every crime article, "Crime Never Pays."

PLAYS A THINGING PART. "Don't be so noisy," said mother to Jessie. "Why can't you be quiet like Jimmie?" "Oh, he's got to be quiet," replied Jessie. "You see we're playing he's daddy coming home from the Elks and I'm you."—Cappers Weekly.

The smallest item in the monthly household expenses is the electric bill. 8 2-3c a day was the average electric bill of all our residential customers in Canyon for the year 1930, less for electricity than the average family spends daily for candy, soft drinks or the movies.

When you snap on a switch in your home you spend only fractions of pennies. Nowhere else do you spend so little and get so much. No other penny in the household budget buys so much as the penny spent for electricity.

The electric penny buys two hours breeze from an electric fan, two hours comfort from a heating pad, one hour of radio entertainment, three hours use of the curling iron, and one hours use of the vacuum cleaner or the washing machine.

With Harsh Irritants

"Reach for a LUCKY instead"

Everyone has an Adam's Apple—Every man—every woman has one. Touch your Adam's Apple with your finger. You are actually touching your larynx—this is your voice box—it contains your vocal chords. When you consider your Adam's Apple, you are considering your throat—your vocal chords.

"TOASTING" expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE—the modern cigarette. We sell these expelled irritants to manufacturers of chemical compounds. Everyone knows that sunshine mellows—that's why the "TOASTING" Process includes the use of Ultra Violet Rays. LUCKY STRIKE—made of the finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—THEN—"IT'S TOASTED"—an extra, secret and exclusive heating process. It is this process that expels these harsh irritants. No wonder 20,679 American physicians have stated LUCKIES to be less irritating. No wonder LUCKIES are always kind to your throat. And so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple." BANKERS ON ADVERTISING.

Bankers are hard-headed business men, basing their deductions on proven facts, and the following published in the American Bankers Magazine is sound advice:

"No business man in any town should allow a newspaper published in his town to go without his name and business being mentioned somewhere in its columns. This does not mean you should have a whole, half or even a quarter page ad in each issue of the paper, but your name and business should be mentioned, if you do not use more than a 2-line space. A stranger picking up a newspaper should be able to tell what business is represented in a town by looking at a paper. This is the best possible town advertisement. The man who does not advertise his business does an injustice to himself and the town. The man who insists on sharing the business that comes to town, but refuses to advertise his own, is not a valuable addition to any town. The life of a town depends on the live, wide awake and liberal advertising business men."

Commissioners Court Discussed Routine Business

The Commissioners' Court attended to routine business at the monthly meeting last Monday. The monthly bills were paid, and business conditions were discussed.

The fact that taxes are coming in slowly was taken up and then the discussion turned to the question of what could be done if enough tax money is not paid in by October when the taxes are finally due, according to Judge S. B. Orton.

The next meeting of the Commissioners' Court will be August 10.

GUIDANCE IN MUSIC.

By Bruce Catton

When little Willie shows that he has unusual talent for playing the violin, his parents usually see glittering visions of a highly salaried child prodigy and start putting him through the grind that will make him a professional concert musician.

Once in a great while it works, and little Willie follows in the footsteps of Elman and Heifetz. More often, however, it does not. Willie becomes just another fiddler and he discovers too late that his whole childhood was wasted.

All of this, of course, isn't a problem that the average parent needs to worry about. But it is an illusion of the attitude parents are too apt to take when their children show musical ability; and a remark recently made at the convention of the National Federation of Music Clubs by Mrs. Elmer J. Ootaway, president of the federation, is worth bearing in mind.

"Parents must be taught," she said, "that merely because their youngsters show musical talent is no reason for intensely preparing them for a professional career. Music for its own sake is the fundamental joy."

There is a lot of good sense to that remark. Sometimes it seems as if the United States today had too many professional musicians—a lot of whom, by the way are not eating regularly these days—and too few amateurs. Parents are always willing to stand the expense of musical training if they believe that their young hopeful can cash in on it when he goes out into the world. They are not so willing when they know that he will never make a cent out of it.

But there are few things that give one more enjoyment, during the course of a lifetime, than the ability to play some musical instrument passably well. There is a spiritual relaxation to be found in music that you produce yourself that can be gained in no other way. Even the poor wight who can play nothing but the newest jazz knows this is true.

And that is not the whole of it. Knowing how to play enables one to get more enjoyment from the music the professionals produce. The best possible way to appreciate great music is to learn how to play yourself.

Parents who guide their child carefully toward intimate acquaintance with some musical instrument, with no thought of public performances, are giving the child a possession that will be priceless later on.

BANANAS IN FAVOR.

Whether the song about bananas, which delighted many and nearly drove others to distraction a few years ago, had anything to do with it or not, we do not know, but the fact is that the banana has become increasingly popular of late.

During one month 2,708,767 bunches of bananas were received at the port of New Orleans alone from Central America.

Yet the banana is not indigenous to this hemisphere, but is thought to have originated in India, where Alexander the Great subsisted his troops on the fruit as long ago as 327 B. C. It is said that the banana was first brought to the New World by a Spanish priest in 1516. From that beginning a great industry has grown and continues to grow.

Composed of five per cent albumen, nearly 20 per cent sugar and pectose and 74 per cent water, the banana has a considerable nutritive value and has long been the principal food of millions in tropical and sub-tropical countries. Now it is eaten almost everywhere.

RISKING TOO MUCH.

While sharing the universal admiration for Lindbergh's courage and skill as an aviator, we can not help feeling that in his proposed flight across the Pacific with Mrs. Lindbergh he is risking too much.

Conceding that two adult persons have the right to risk their lives in any manner they choose, we are thinking of the Lindbergh baby, who would be left motherless if disaster should befall his parents in their daring enterprise.

Mrs. Lindbergh has already demonstrated her own bravery and skill in the air to an extent which should satisfy anyone. No possible practical benefit can come to the science and art of flying by her taking the desperate risk of a trans-Pacific flight. Even the great Lindbergh is only human, and he may tempt fate once too often.

However, we wish the brave pair luck in their proposed flight, although we consider the hazards involved entirely out of proportion to anything of benefit which it may accomplish if successful.

THE DESTRUCTIVE RAT.

Of all the pests which infest the world, the rat is undeniably one of the worst. So great has the menace of rats become that an International association for their extermination has been organized.

Not only do rats destroy millions of dollars worth of farm products every year, but they are a menace to health through the fleas which infest them and spread diseases of various kinds, such as bubonic plague, trichinosis and hydrophobia.

It is said that one couple of gray rats will produce 800 to 900 offsprings in a year, as the young become adults in four months. If all were able to find food and shelter it can readily be seen that they would ultimately "overrun" a community.

The program recommended for combatting rats includes the building of rat-proof structures, the cutting off of their food supply and the poisoning of those which survive other preventative measures.

P. K. HARMON RECALLS DAYS WHEN COAL SOLD FOR CASH

The Canyon City Coal and Grain Co. didn't pay any attention to competition in the '90s—there wasn't any.

In the old days, merchandise was hauled 150 miles by wagon trains.

This company used to buy 350 cars of coal during the storage season.

W. C. Kenyon, who bought thousands of cars of coal.

By P. K. HARMON
Sales Agent for
The Colorado Fuel and Iron Co.

Before the turn of the century, before the west had been made safe for dudes, selling coal was an entirely different sort of business than it is now.

I recently renewed acquaintance with some oldtime customers of The Colorado Fuel and Iron Company and our reminiscences brought back the simple methods used in selling coal in the Gay Nineties.

No one paid any attention to competition in those days. There wasn't any, for the demand for coal always exceeded the supply.

All coal was shipped with "advance charges." Dealers paid the railroad for the coal at the same time they paid the freight charges. The railroad then reimbursed the operator. Freight cars carried a maximum of 25 tons of coal.

Oldtime dealers recall, with a sigh, how simple it was to conduct a coal business in the old days. Everything was strictly cash on the barrel head. No sales slips, no accounts receivable, no bookkeeping of any description.

And what a summer storage business there used to be! During the storage season, the operator reduced his mine price twenty-five cents a ton and the railroad knocked off two-bits off its freight rate. Any dealer foolish enough not to fill his bins during this period stood a good chance of running out of coal during the winter.

I called on one dealer who reminded me of a storage order that he once gave me for 350 cars of C. F. & I. Walsenburg coal, all of which was delivered during a three month's storage season. Then, in November, his winter shipments began and averaged two cars a day. That was a retail coal business! It belonged to W. C. Kenyon, proprietor of the Canyon Coal and Grain Company, Canyon City, Texas. This company hauled coal and other merchandise 150 miles by "wagon train." Mr. Kenyon is now Postmaster at Amarillo, Texas, and says frankly that he would welcome back the old days provided he had a full stock of C. F. & I. coals.

It gives me a great kick to talk to some of these oldtimers and to find them still buying C. F. & I. coals, still loyal to the company that has given them high quality service for so many years.

THE BOND ISSUES.

A letter to the News:
A decision on the Park bonds may have some bearing on the Water Improvement bonds which has about all the merits of the two.

If both issues carry the city's bonded indebtedness will pass the $100,000 mark. The city tax values are up a little at this time, and the $1 rate will be raised to meet the bonds. Do we need the raise? My purse does not.

We have voted for each bond issue in the past few years, but now seems a time to halt. Many of us are on the mat and all but pinned. Just living now usually takes all we make and some besides; the paying of just obligations and higher taxes are out of proportion.

Now a park is a nice thing in the right place in the city where we can see it and enjoy it. But a country park—a municipal park one-half mile outside the city limits—with no park of any kind inside the city limits—with no park of any kind inside the city is far-fetched: the cart before the horse, even if we were able to get the cart.

When the Park issue was first mentioned in the News, our Mayor gave us the tip (an old one) that Canyon might soon get a cut in the gas rates. It also appears that the gas company has been figuring on the proposition since last February. Now, we are behind the Mayor, and wonder if he should not have had the figuring done before these bond issues came up.

He might also induce other concessions that would help the economic conditions in the city.

Well, back to the Wragge 90-odd-acre farm—a starter on the city park. It is one mile from the court house which is in the center of the town; pay $8,000 for it; fix it up with $2,000. Then before the bonds are paid off, A. D. 1951, we would probably pay another $20,000 for caretaker, and so forth.

Then will we walk out there? No. We would have to hook up the flivver or most of us would stay at home.

Let us serve the people with little parks in the wards in which they live, and pay the bill out of the general fund.

Parties will give us a block or half a block of land. Then maybe we could hold the Blue Ribbon a while; at least we might cope with Hereford, the city of nifty parks.

Come out next Monday and vote against Wragge Park.

ORTON TO SHIP
TEXT BOOKS SOON

Judge S. B. Orton, County Superintendent of Public Schools, is preparing a shipment of school books to return to Austin. These books consist of out-dated and worn-out text books which have been in use in the county and of the extra books.

The number of books which a county is supposed to keep is not supposed to be more than 10 per cent of the enrollment for each particular course or subject. Since the enrollment varies from year to year, books must be sent back and forth to supply the demand elsewhere.

The law enacted last year lowering the school age from 7 years to 6 years caused a particularly heavy demand for first grade books all over the state. This will cause the demand to change to second grade books this year, Judge Orton said.

The law restricting the school age to 7 years was an old one. The new law enacted at the insistence of many people allows 6-year-old boys and girls to attend school without paying tuition.

AND COOKING

10 Reasons for using a pressure Cooker

1. Time, labor and fuel are saved.
2. Foods are never scorched or burnt in cooking.
3. The cooker is convenient, durable and easy to operate.
4. Money is saved on meat and grocery bills.
5. An entire meal of three different courses can be cooked at the same time, without the flavors blending.
6. Food flavors are better because there is no loss of juices in cooking.
7. It can be used as a fireless cooker.
8. An entire meal including the desert can be properly cooked in thirty minutes.
9. Can be used for canning fruits and vegetables.
10. Its use means more comfort and less work for the house-keeper.

It cooks thoroughly, quickly and without waste. It preserves all the flavors and goodness of the food. Three separate dishes of entirely different foods may be cooked in separate dishes at the same time without blending flavors.

Old hens and roosters if cooked 40 minutes in a NATIONAL Cooker will be as tender and nutritious as spring chickens which cost very much more. Similar savings can be made with cuts of beef, mutton or pork.

Chamber of Commerce News

By Fred E. Wortham, Secretary

Through the courtesy of the publisher of the News, Mr. Clyde W. Warwick, who voluntarily offered this space to the Chamber of Commerce, this column is made possible. Mr. Warwick has ever had the good of this community and all its varied interests at heart and the columns of his publication, which ranks high in journalistic circles, have always been open to any group for the fostering of better relationship in the community. The officers of the Chamber of Commerce deeply appreciate the kind offer of Mr. Warwick which came voluntarily and unexpectedly.

Boost for Canyon. Join the Chamber of Commerce and work for the better interests of the entire community.

Canyon is now a splendid location for a small creamery plant. A small plant producing high grade sweet cream, butter and wholesale ice cream should do well here.

Boost, boost and keep on boosting.

It will take hard work, plenty of courage to win out but just keep on plugging without a let up and see what will be accomplished within the next five years.

Merchants, prepare now for your Trades Day on August 1. Shoppers, prepare to come to Canyon for that Trades Day.

In the Sunday issue of the Amarillo Daily News, T. E. Johnson in his column, "Plains Speaking" discusses a subject which should be of interest to all Canyon. Mr. Johnson says that the community chests of the Panhandle should stop now and consider the advantages of buying this low priced wheat. He points out that by making a purchase of wheat now and turning it into flour, $1 will be made to pay for what $5 will when the cold winter months arrive and hungry mouths will need feeding. The same food value that can be purchased now for 15 cents will cost 75c later on.

Those in charge of the charities in Canyon will no doubt be glad to receive any free wheat from those who care to donate same and the men in charge can have the cheap wheat converted into flour at this time and store it until next winter. In this manner the charity dollar will be stretched over a wide area. Although hungry mouths cannot be fed on flour alone, if $1 is used to buy $5 worth of flour now, there will be $4 left with which to purchase other needs.

It has been announced that the judging of master dairy farmer contestants of the Amarillo News-Globe annual contest will be staged from September 7 to 12. Those in this county who are in the contest will await with interest the announcement of the winners of that contest, the announcement to be made during the Tri-State Fair. It will be remembered that in the first contest Randall county had one man to finish in fourth place, last year, the second of the contest, this county had three men to finish in the money, first, third and tenth place. It is to be hoped that this year will see a continuation of winners from among the citizens of our county.

Let's buy at home. Do your trading in Canyon. Your neighbor supports you when you need support, and it's only fair that you return the deed whenever possible. Perhaps this little story, although an old one, will bear out the need of trading at home.

What is Wrong With Texas?
Nothing's wrong with Texas, except entirely too many of us get up in the morning at the alarm of a Connecticut clock, button a pair of Ohio suspenders to a pair of Chicago pants. Put on a pair of Massachusetts shoes, wash in a Pittsburgh basin, using Cincinnati soap, and a cotton towel made in New Hampshire, sit down to a Grand Rapids table, eat pancakes made from Minneapolis flour spread with Vermont maple syrup, and Kansas bacon fried on a St. Louis stove. Buy fruit put up in California, seasoned with Rhode Island spices, and sweetened with Colorado sugar. Put on a hat made in Philadelphia, hitch a Detroit mule fed on Oklahoma gasoline to an Ohio plow and work all day on a Texas farm covered with a New England mortgage, send our money to Ohio for tires, wondering why Texas taxes are $2.75 per acre while Ohio farmers pay $1.00 tax and drive on paved roads, and at night we crawl under a New Jersey blanket to be kept awake by a bull dog, the only home grown product on the place, wondering all the time, where in the hell all the money went in this wonderful state of ours. If we would buy more home manufactured products we could keep our money at home and be prosperous.

Methodists Open Revival Sunday Morning at 11

The Reverend and Mrs. R. L. Flowers, evangelists, will open the revival of the Methodist church here at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. The revival will last from 10 days to two weeks, according to Rev. C. E. Jameson.

The City Commission has granted the church permission to close one-half block of the street between the church and the McKinzie Hotel so that seats may be erected for open air meetings in the evenings.

Mr. Jameson has asked for volunteers to construct the seats. Work on them will begin at 7:30 o'clock Friday morning.

Charlie Kiker has charge of the committee on music; he will organize a volunteer orchestra. Miss Mattie Mae Swisher and Mrs. Grace Wood will help to organize the singing.

Morning services, except for Sunday, will be from 10 to 11 o'clock in the church. All evening services will be at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Flowers were in Canyon to conduct the Methodist revival services in 1927. They have just closed a revival meeting of two weeks at Borger.

Mrs. L. Angel had as her guest last week, her daughter, Mrs. I. C. Baucum, of DePew, Okla.

Texas Exhibits

offices of the Panhandle of Texas, Inc., in Amarillo where it is copied and copies of the information sent to every chamber of commerce in the 32 counties represented in the Panhandle.

The counties included in the Panhandle are: Dalhart, Hartley, Gidham, Deaf Smith, Parmer, Bailey, Sherman, Moore, Potter, Randall, Castro, Lamb, Hansford, Ochiltree, Hutchinson, Carson, Armstrong, Swisher, Hale, Roberts, Gray, Donley, Briscoe, Floyd, Lipscomb, Hemphill, Wheeler, Collinsworth, Hall, Motley, Childress and Cottle.

When the exhibits leave the Panhandle this fall under the charge of the exhibitors, who will visit the fair circuits and tell the world of the wonderful advantages in the Panhandle country, an unusual feature will be carried. This new feature will be in the form of a new rotogravure magazine telling in word and picture the wonderful resources of this entire area.

In the past all literature has been furnished the organization by the railroads in this section. In many instances the information in those booklets and other forms of literature was out of date and did not cover the entire 32 counties as fully as it should. This year the Panhandle organization is furnishing its own literature. Each county will be discussed separately. A page will be devoted to each county showing pictures of its various resources. A portion of that page will be used as a description of each city in that county and the county as a whole.

The booklet will tell the world that Randall county was recognized as the leading agricultural county in the state of Texas last year, because of its extensive winnings at various fairs.

It will proclaim to all in this section that the West Texas State Teachers College makes Canyon the educational center of all North-west Texas. It will inform the many thousands of the beauty of the Palo Duro Canyons and its possibilities of becoming a most outstanding beauty spot.

For every dollar raised in the other counties to carry on this work through the Panhandle of Texas, Inc., the Amarillo Board of City Development gives a dollar to the funds. The literature that is distributed is given only to those who furnish their names at the exhibit booths, stating they are interested in locating in the Panhandle.

REPORT OF THE CONDITION OF

J. A. Hill Gets Publicity in West Texas Today

By T. E. Johnson,
Editor of the Amarillo News,
in "West Texas Today."

If you want to stay young, be a school teacher. In child training, you will be more important than the preacher.

That's the philosophy of Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the West Texas State Teachers College at Canyon, and he'll convince you that he is right.

"You can't help it," says Dr. Hill, "when you have youth around you and you are wrapped up in the problems and ambitions of young men and women."

The gratitude of youth is something that can't be measured in dollars and cents, Dr. Hill believes. The appreciation of a young man or young woman for assistance he has been given in the class room is one of the major rewards of the teaching profession, in his opinion.

3000 Wise Choices

Dr. Hill is completing his twenty-first year at Canyon college, an institution that started out in 1910 with 225 students and this year has an enrollment approximating 3,000. Upwards of 1,400 are enrolled in the summer classes. The regular term recently closed had a student body of 1,600. The majority are young men and women who have chosen teaching as their profession. In Dr. Hill's sincere opinion they have chosen wisely for their life's work.

"Teaching is a dignified and responsible profession," says President Hill. "It doesn't offer the most money in the professional field, but it offers much that can not be found elsewhere."

"There are many rewards of more value and satisfaction than money. The realization that a man or woman is working in a field that means much to the future is worth much. There is deep joy in working with youth; there is satisfaction in knowing or believing that one has raised the ideals and enriched the outlook upon life of a boy or girl."

Privileged Contact

"It is worth much to be with youth, to understand its ambitions, to become imbued with its optimism. A person retains a different outlook upon the future if he is with youth. He always looks toward the future, rather than upon the past. To me this is a reward that comes only from teaching."

Dr. Hill, starting out at Canyon as head of the history department 20 years ago, and eight years later becoming president of the institution which furnishes 50 per cent of the teachers for all Panhandle public schools, is a believer in democracy on the campus and in the class room.

"If there is any phase of college life which we emphasize," said Dr. Hill, "it is that of democracy. We have no cliques, no social barriers; the poorest boy from the farm is the same as the boy from the wealthiest family. We measure the worth of the student by what he is and what he does; who he is doesn't matter."

And there are hundreds of successful teachers scattered throughout Texas who will verify what Dr. Hill says. They are graduates of his college. They remember also the fraternal relations between the faculty and the student body at Canyon, one of the outstanding policies of the school.

When the school was established it had a faculty of 16, today its faculty numbers 70 trained men and women.

in the other professions, having expanded freely into these other fields in late years under the supervision of President Hill.

Dr. Hill can't agree with the person who says that the teaching profession has lost its dignity.

"The young man or woman who becomes a teacher has the respect of the public, whether in the small cross-roads center or in the college," he declares. If this respect doesn't exist, then the teacher isn't a success.

"This respect leads to dignity and to influence in the community. The teacher is of more importance than the preacher to the child in the matter of right training."

"Teaching is a wonderful profession. I can't think of anything else I would like to do. I enjoy every minute of my work and I recommend it to the young men and women of Texas who want to be happy and pursue a worthwhile calling."

The meanest way yet discovered of saving money is borrowing your neighbor's newspaper.

Second Arrest for Drunkenness Brings $50 Fine and Costs

Jimmie Slade, 25, of Amarillo, was arrested for drunkenness last Thursday morning as he lay in his car which was parked in the center of the pavement between Amarillo and Canyon by A. C. Donnell, deputy sheriff.

Brought to Canyon he pleaded guilty to the accusation and was fined $50 and costs by Judge S. B. Orton. This was his second offense in this county. About a year ago he was arrested for drunkenness and was convicted in the January term of court.

OBERTS HERE.

DRIVE BEGUN FOR FALL ENROLLMENT

With the support of the business men of Canyon, L. N. Goerge, field secretary of the Ex-Students' Association of the College, has started a drive to increase attendance at the College this fall.

Several of the Canyon stores have agreed to sponsor a county in the Panhandle: Piggly Wiggly, Wheeler; Bellah Grocery, Swisher; City Pharmacy, Armstrong; Gordon McCarty, Deaf Smith; and Sternenberg Lumber Co., Castro, according to Mr. Goerge.

"There are a number of counties left which other business men could take to assist in getting prospective students interested in the college. Regardless of the depression we can have a high attendance record this Fall. But we must pull together to do it," Mr. Goerge said.

FARMERS TO MEET

A meeting has been called for Monday night, July 20 at 8:30 o'clock for the purpose of discussing plans leading toward the organization of a farmer's cream marketing association.

The meeting will be held in the district court room of the courthouse. All persons in the county who are interested in a better cream and produce market are urged to attend. Invitations to a very large number of cream producers and poultry raisers in the county were mailed out this week.

TIME LIMIT SHORT.

County Agent W. H. Upchurch issued a statement this week of interest to all boys interested in the baby beef feeding project for 4-H club boys. Mr. Upchurch states that the time limit for enrollment in the feeding of baby beefs to be entered in the Fat Stock Show at Amarillo next spring is short. He requests that all boys who want to enter that work to see him at once.

COMING.

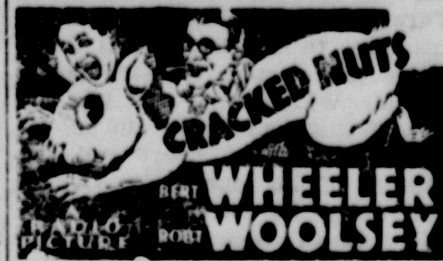

Depend on it. I will be there. Have I ever failed you? Hold your piano work for me. I will be in Canyon next week.

Spectacular Cremation Ceremonies Boost High Cost of Dying in Bali

THE cost of living means nothing in Bali. But the cost of dying—that's a real worry.

For the Balinese must spend his lifetime saving for a fitting funeral, according to D. A. Vonk, world traveler, who spent some time on this little known islet of the Dutch East Indies group. He has just returned to San Francisco.

There are many, many niceties of custom to be observed, according to Vonk. For instance, if a younger member of a family dies, the remains must be kept until his elders have passed on. And for a family cremation, the cost often runs into thousands of guilders—sometimes 30,000 of them.

Await Cremation

Pending cremation, the dead are buried to await the death of others in the family. They are placed in a separate building, or, in the case of higher castes, the bodies are mummified in the house. The dead spirit must be supplied with food and company right along, and supplying these until cremation liberates the spirit is another item of considerable expense.

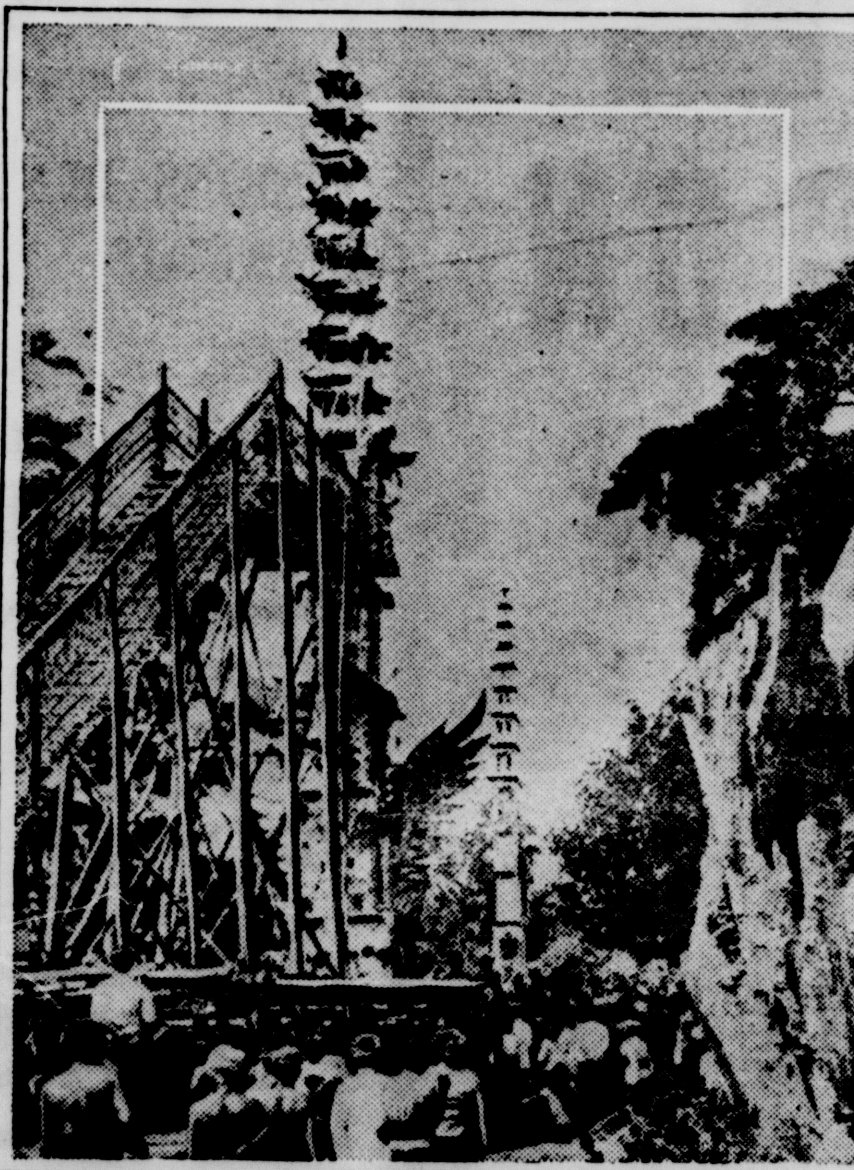

"Cremations usually are set for August to November, inclusive. And the approach of cremation date sees unprecedented activity by the native artisans in the construction of 'wadahs' or tall cremation towers," Vonk continues. "This is a tall, ornate structure that does duty as a hearse as well as a funeral pyre."

"As it is the 'wadah' that runs up the cost of funerals. They all are several stories high. And the higher the caste of the deceased, the more stories. In the case of royalty, the 'wadah' towers often are 11 stories high, with elaborate workmanship, rich decorations and expensive work in most all cases."

"A gorgeous facsimile of 'garoeda,' the sun-eagle riding animal of Shiva, always of exquisite workmanship, is part of every 'wadah.' On the 'garoeda' level, there is a room for the dead. And above this rises the many stories of the pagoda-shaped tower."

Ashes Thrown in River

After the bodies of the dead are unearthed or otherwise made ready

The more important a man is in Bali, in the Dutch East Indies, the higher the wadah, or cremation tower that is built for his funeral. The one above is typical of the ones used by the high castes. For cremation, they are passed from man to man along a sloping plank to the 'wadah' receptacle. Then, with upwards of 100 men carrying the towers, to the rattle of drums and a weird circling by attendants long ceremonies, wadah and coffin are set afire, to make a most spectacular blaze.

"After the blaze begins to subside, Balinese with long sticks see that everything is consumed in the fire. The afflicted family then collects the remaining ashes. Next day, these are taken to the nearest river or the ocean, for they hold that all remains must completely vanish from the earth if regeneration is to be possible."
